Become a World Class Speaker

Imagine yourself taking the stage of a major conference. You grab the attention of the audience at once and keep it until you finish your speech. They learn and laugh. This will be your reality after you learn and apply the 12 World Class Speaking Competencies.

The Profit Maximizer

Business leaders are focused on one Key Performance Indicator: PROFIT. While the majority of leaders are concerned about the future, few are confident about it because they know and apply the universal rule: As you sow, so you shall reap.

The 4 C's of Professional Success

For more than two decades, we have researched, studied and experimented with the factors that lead to professional success. In this keynote, we will reveal the four most important factors to guide you in achieving your dreams and desires.

Life's most persistent and urgent question is:
WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR OTHERS ?

TESTIMONIALS

"Being in the speaking business, I seldom find anyone impressive other than myself. Why? I am not a modest person. I love to blow my own trumpet. But when it came to Mohamed Isa in the year 2010... Well, I had to eat humble pie. He not only blew my mind away with his performance, but he touched and impressed all the senior speakers filling the auditorium that day in Kuwait. Mohamed Isa is an ever-evolving speaker and one who has the potential to be the world's best."

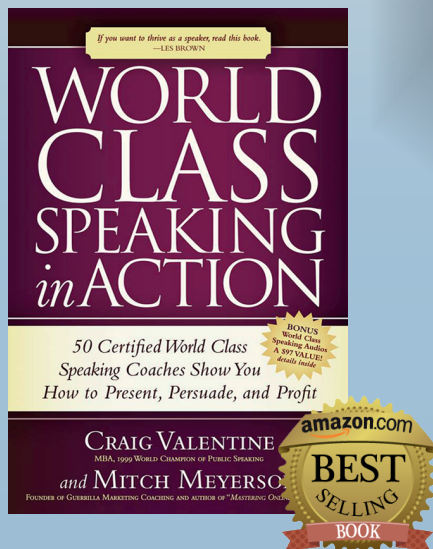

Loy Machado

Award Winning Speaker & Trainer UAE

"All human beings can be taught the tools to deliver a speech, but there are certain finer aspects of speech-making that can never be taught—such as the speaker's conviction in the topic and the sincerity with which he or she conveys the message.

These are just a couple of examples of non-technical criteria which are a product of the personality and character of the speaker and are the key differentiators between glib, silver-tongued orators and those who speak from the heart like Mohamed."
